Transient Admits to Trespassing at Selena Gomez House

A homeless man was convicted today of trespassing into a Calabasas area property being purchased by entertainer Selena Gomez, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Eduards Abele said Che Cruz, 20, pleaded no contest in his initial court appearance to one misdemeanor count of unauthorized entry of a dwelling house.

Commissioner Alvin Nierenberg of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Van Nuys Branch, sentenced Cruz to three years probation and 45 days in county jail.

The prosecutor said the defendant also was ordered to stay away from Gomez and her residence. Additionally, he is prohibited from possessing any weapons.

Cruz was arrested on March 30 in a guest house on the property being purchased by Gomez.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Lost Hills Station.
